RACE BROOK EVENT POLICIES

GENERAL DRESS CODE - Wearing baseball-style caps or visors backwards is not acceptable at any time in or around the clubhouse and on the golf course. Men and women are not permitted to wear jeans, sweatpants, sweatshirts, hoodies, t-shirts, tank tops and shower related footwear in or around the Clubhouse and on the golf course. The Golf Course and Practice Facilities require collared shirts and appropriate golfing shorts, skorts or pants (no jeans, cargo, cut offs or athletic shorts). Sleeveless golf blouses with collars are permissible for ladies, as is other appropriate golfing attire. Golf shoes must have non-metal spikes and shirts must be tucked in at all times in the clubhouse and on the golf course.

GUARANTEES - A final guarantee of attendance as well as half of the estimated payment must be submitted to the catering office no later than five (5) business days prior to the function. Once the guarantee is given, it is not subject to reduction. We will prepare and set-up for 5% over the guarantee. Should the number of attendees increase the day of the function, the actual number served will be charged. In the event a guarantee is not received within the allotted time, the catering office will charge for the number indicated on the original contract.

SERVICE CHARGE AND TAX - All food, beverage, rentals and services are subject to current state sales tax. A service charge of 21% will be added to all food and beverage charges. Qualifying tax-exempt organizations must submit a CERT 112, 119 or 123. The approved form must be provided to the Club prior to the event.

FOOD AND BEVERAGE - All food and beverage items must be provided by the Club. All food and beverage must also be consumed on the premises and may not be removed. All menu selections must be submitted to the Banquet Office at least (2) weeks prior to your event. On buffets, the Club will provide ample amounts of food for the guaranteed number of guests anticipated. With this policy we decline carry out containers during or after buffet service. Price increases and current menu price take precedence. To protect our members and their guests, Race Brook Country Club reserves the right to cancel beverage service for any of the following reasons:

1. Possession of alcohol by attendees that has not been purchased through the Club;
2. Noncompliance with either Race Brook Country Club liquor policy or the State of Connecticut Liquor Regulations;
3. Any circumstances judged by management that would endanger members, guests, staff, or property. We reserve the right to refuse service to anyone, at the Club's discretion, that appears intoxicated.

DISPLAYS AND PERSONAL PROPERTY - The Club does not permit anything to be affixed to the floors, walls, doors or ceilings either permanently or temporarily. Any damage caused by, but not restricted to, nails, glue, tape or tacks will be the responsibility of the member / member's guest. The client agrees to pay for any repairs in order to return any damaged sites to its original state. The Club will not assume responsibility for damage or loss of any merchandise or articles left in the Club prior to, during or following the event.

FUNCTION ROOM POLICY - The Club reserves the right to reassign banquet space due to a change in schedule, anticipated attendance or changes in program. All changes will be communicated prior to the event. Also, each contract has a designated start and end time for the function. Should the event exceed the allotted time by more than 30 minutes, there will be a charge assessed.

WEATHER POLICY - A tournament plays rain or shine. A tournament will only be cancelled by the Director of Golf on the day of scheduled play if threatening weather (thunder and lightning) occurs or the course is deemed unplayable by the Course Superintendent. On the day of a tournament, a scheduled meal will proceed as planned or postponed only after consultation with the Executive Chef. A tournament will be rescheduled whenever possible based on date availability. Deposits are non-refundable.
